A Nursery Rhyme Harvest

Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard
To get her pet doggie a treat
But when she got there
She'd so much to share,
She'd food for us all to eat

She had.... (sung to the tune of oranges and lemons)
Apples and oranges, strawberries too
So many choices for me and for you
So many treats, like puddings and sweets
Thank God that we're able to fill our table.

Simple Simon met a pie-man
Going to the fair
Said Simple Simon to the pie-man
What have you got there?
I've got.....

Beef pie and chicken, and shepherds pie too
So many choices for me and for you
So many foods my menu includes
How blessed are we to have all that you see.

Jack Sprat could eat no fat
His wife could eat no lean
But fortunately healthy foods
Are somewhere in between.
There are....

Cereals and yoghurts and poultry meat too
So many choices for me and for you
So many cheeses and food made to please us
Luckily we can eat regularly.

Mary Mary, quite contrary
How does the harvest thrive?
With lots of love from God above;
The sun and rain help it survive.
So.....

Thank God now at harvest and all the year through
Thank God for the choices he gives me and you
Thank God for His love sent down from above
Thank God that He cares and sends blessings to share.
